The Annual Meeting of the Stockholders of this institution was held at their Banking House in this town, on the 1st and 2nd inst. Daniel Dickson, Esq., appearing as proxy for the State.

In the course of the proceedings, the following res-Resolved, That so much of the report of the President and Directors, as refers to the death of John W. Wright, Esq., the late Casher of the Branch of this Bank at Fayetteville, and to his long continued and faithful services, as an officer of this institution, be published. The following extract from the report of the President and Directors embraces so much of said report as is referred to in the foregoing resolution, viz :-"Although the Bank has been fortunate in her pecuniary transactions within the past year, yet we have to record a serious loss in the death of her oldest and most valuable officer. Mr. John W. Wright had been an officer of the Branch at Fayetteville for nearly forty years, and had established a character for integrity, accuracy, neatness, and promptness in the discharge of his duties, which constituted him a model for all officers in like situations, while his sound judgment, extended experience, and close application to the varied business incident to his position had most deservedly placed him among the first financial officers of our country."

CHARLESTON, S. C., April 26, 1854. Gentlemen: Your kind letter of the 10th inst,, inviting me to visit Wilmington, and enquiring when shall be there, has just reached me here, and I hasten to say that I am very desirous of seeing your City, and intend to do so on my way North; but, I cannot say, precisely, at what time, as we intend to return from this point to upper Georgia, and thence to Nashville, Tenn., from which place we shall return again to Augusta, and thence to Columbia, S. C., and thence to Wilmington. This will, probably, occupy about 10 days; but some friend at Columbia will be able to notity you of the time, when we arrive there. With many thanks for your kind invitation,
